Winthrop, Massachusetts

Miss Anne Hey and Mr. John Wynn — Faculty Advisors to the Class of 1955.

To Miss Hey and Mr. Wynn

In our minds the activities of our Senior Class will be invariably associated with Miss Anne Hey and Mr. John Wynn, who as our Class Advisors during the past three years have worked with us closely and untiringly.

Scenes such as these will stand out in our memories: Mr. Wynn's persevering building of the fireplace for our Junior Prom; his agitated search for a Harvest Time Wagon; Miss Hey carrying her hard-to-find raccoon coats backstage during "Good News"; and with her sparkling wit, making valuable suggestions when our ideas were lacking.

With deepest affection and sincere appreciation, we dedicate to them the Echo of 1955.

Alma Mater

Let our voices loudly ringing
 Echo far and near
Songs of praise thy children singing
 To thy memories dear.
Winthrop High School,
Winthrop High School,
 Tender, fair, and true,
Loyal sons and grateful daughters,
 All our vows renew.

Years may dim our recollections
 Time its changes bring,
Still thy name in fond affection
 Evermore, we sing.
Winthrop High School,
Winthrop High School,
 Tender, fair and true,
Loyal sons and grateful daughters,
 All our vows renew.

The Class of 1955 Presents "The Echo"

This year of 1955, the title of our yearbook assumes a special significance, in that we have attempted to review the school year using the Echo as a medium. We have tried to record through picture and narrative the activities of our high school life in such a way that, along with these tangible illustrations, familiar sounds and friendly voices will re-echo in your memories. We hope that as the years pass by, this Echo will be an increasingly pleasant reminder of a year rich in experiences.

Our Principal

Principal

Our principal, Leslie L. Dunham, received his Bachelor of Science degree from Rhode Island State College. He has done graduate work at Harvard, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Hyannis.

Mr. Dunham's wisdom and kindness in guiding our High School life will stand out in our memories through the years to come.

Among Mr. Dunham's outside interests are sports, reading, and horticulture.

To the Class of 1955

This yearbook is a permanent record of your association in the Winthrop High School. I am sure that you will like it, but its greatest value will be in the years to come, when its pages will bring back so many memories. You are a very important part of this book, for without you there could be no book. You have by your vote elected class representatives and team captains and by your participation have made activities possible.

A good yearbook requires not only a great deal of hard work but also the coordination and skill of many people. Your yearbook staff, under the direction of Miss Wilder, has studied the publications of preceding classes and then planned and completed the material for this book, and the photographer and printer have done the rest.

And now, as you leave this school as a student, you become a very important part of civilization. Your knowledge exceeds that of preceding classes, for you have the benefit of the progress made up to this time. We all look to each one of you to do your part in your work, in holding office, in electing qualified people to office, in defending the country in time of need, and in respecting the religion and civic rights of others. May God grant that you continue to demonstrate the ability, integrity, and tolerance that you have shown as a member of this school.

Leslie L. Dunham

Our Advisors

ORRIN C. DAVIS
Superintendent of Schools

Orrin C. Davis, Superintendent of the Winthrop Schools, received his B.S. degree from the University of Massachusetts, and his Master of Education from Boston University. As superintendent, he has displayed a vital interest not only in high school activities but also in each individual student.

Submaster

Our submaster, Ralph L. Duplin, is also head of the Mathematics Department. Mr. Duplin earned his Bachelor of Science degree at Georgetown University, and his Master of Science at Boston College.

Mr. Duplin's understanding and sincerity have helped all of us become better equipped for the future.

His hobbies are camping and sailing.

MISS JESSIE M. PORTER
Guidance Director

Miss Jessie M. Porter, head of our Guidance Department, received her B.A. and M.A. from Boston University. In addition, she has done graduate work at Harvard and Oxford University in England.

Throughout our high school years, Miss Porter has been a friendly counselor, and has shown a personal interest in each of us. The materialization of our future plans is in no small way due to Miss Porter's advice and assistance.

Mr. Philip Anderson received his A. B. from Boston College and his Ed. M. from Tufts College. Besides teaching English, he works busily advising the Little Sir Echo staff, and is one of the Junior Class advisors.

Miss Viva Blackburn, head of the History Department, acquired her A. B. from the University of Rochester. She then went to Simmons College, where she received her B. S., and to Boston University where she received her Ed. M. Her energetic spirit helps guide the History Club meetings along paths of interest.

Miss Helen Cady, head of the Modern Language Department, attended Boston University where she received her A. B. and A. M. She is a very able Junior Class advisor, and has generously given much of her time in assisting in the senior class productions. Her youthful personality endears her to us all.

Mrs. Edna Carlton, head of the Science Department, graduated from State Teachers' College, then attended Boston University where she received her B. S. and M. A. One of the things that makes us like Mrs. Carlton is her sense of humor.

Winthrop High School will lose a favorite faculty member this June with the retirement of Miss Edna R. Chalfant. We are indebted to Miss Chalfant, our school librarian, for making our school library the wonderful aid and efficient institution that it is now.

Although we shall miss Miss Chalfant, both as a teacher and a friend, we hope that she will enjoy her greatly deserved leisure and find time for the many things she has always wanted to do. A native of Missouri, Miss Chalfant received her B.S.E. at Central Missouri State College, and her M.A. at Boston University.

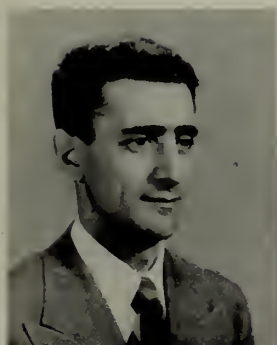

One of W. H. S.'s most versatile teachers is Mr. Eben Colby of the Math and Science Departments. He is a graduate of Tufts College where he received his B. S. and Harvard University where he received his M. A. Mr. Colby is extremely interested in the students and their activities and devotes much time to them and their problems.

Although Mr. William Durante is a newcomer to the school, he is well-liked, and holds the respect of all his students. This was shown by his selection as a sophomore class advisor. Mr. Durante received his B. S. degree in Mathematics at the Boston College School of Liberal Arts, and a M. Ed. at Boston Teachers' College. In addition to school activities, he is interested in scouting and playground work.

Mr. Wilbur Halliday is an alumnus of Winthrop High School, Class of '44. He starred on our football team and went on to further fame at Holy Cross. Now he is assistant coach of the football squad and an instructor of History. He is interested in sports of all kinds.

Mr. Harry Harotian, in charge of the musical programs here at Winthrop High School, received his B. Mus. Ed. at the Boston University College of Music. Because of his sincere, easy-going manner, he is well liked by all of us. In addition to his full schedule, Mr. Harotian conducts the Civic Symphony Orchestra and finds time for a hobby of wood-working.

Mr. Norman Harron received his B. S. in Ed. M. at Boston University. Here he teaches commercial subjects. Mr. Harron's variety of interests — baseball, photography, and dancing — show that he is a well-rounded person.

Mr. Edward Herland graduated from Northeastern University where he received his B. S. in Civil Engineering. Besides teaching mechanical drawing to our future architects and draftsmen, Mr. Herland serves as advisor to the Photography Club and plays at many school dances with his orchestra.

A very popular member of the W. H. S. faculty is Miss Anne Hey, who has been advisor to the class of '55 for three years. Her students have enjoyed her enthusiasm in all she teaches, whether it be French, English, or Dramatics. Miss Hey received her A. B. at Jackson College, her A. M. at Boston University, and has done resident study in France.

Mr. Carl Johnson received his B. S. E. at Keene Teachers' College, and has done graduate work at Boston University and Northeastern University. He not only teaches mathematics, manual training, and heads the driver education program, but also coaches the tumbling team. His outside activities include golfing, fishing, and skiing.

Miss Rachel Johnson is a graduate of Salem Teachers' College and obtained her M. Ed. at Boston University. As a teacher of commercial subjects, she is a great help to the business women of the future. Her hobbies are arts and crafts, gardening, and ceramics.

Heading the girls' athletic program is the very capable Miss Ellen Kiernan, who received her B. S. in Physical Education at Sargent College. Miss Kiernan also coaches the girls' varsity and junior varsity basketball teams. Although favoring skiing, she is interested in all sports.

Our public speaking and dramatics teacher, Mr. Robert Leibacher, received his degrees from Pennsylvania State and Emerson College. All who have worked under the guidance of Mr. Leibacher appreciate the energy and unlimited time he has given to make our school productions so successful.

Mr. Edwin Macfarland attended Springfield College and received his B. A. from Northeastern University. Besides teaching History, Mr. Macfarland ably coaches the football team, and inspires in his players good sportsmanship and team spirit.

Mr. Wallace McClean, a graduate of Rhode Island State College, teaches Physical Education, Science, and Driving Safety. His ready wit and understanding have made him a favorite teacher.

Miss Margaret McIntyre graduated from Mount Holyoke College with a B. A. degree. Through her efficient English teaching, her students have gained an extensive knowledge of grammar and classical literature. One of Miss McIntyre's special interests is music, and she imparts some of her knowledge of and enthusiasm for music to her classes, as well as teaching them English.

Mrs. Elizabeth McNaughton graduated from Westbrook Junior College and majored in Home Economics at Framingham Teachers' College, where she received her B. S. in Education. Her hobby of sewing and the fact that she teaches Home Economics in night school show that she has a very great interest in her work.

Miss Marie McPherson, head of the Domestic Science Department, received her B. S. degree from Framingham Teachers' College, and her M. S. at Simmons. She is interested in sewing and music. Her helpful hints and thorough instruction have prepared many girls to be successful employees and home-makers.

Miss Louise E. Mills, who received her education at Salem Teachers' College and Boston University, with degrees of B. S. E. and Ed. M., is head of the Business Department and Supervisor of Employment. We shall remember her for her sincere interest in the future of her students, and for her humor and wit.

Mr. Harold J. Morse, who teaches Algebra and Geometry, graduated from Dartmouth College, and also received his M. A. there. A lover of sports, he coaches the tennis team. His mild manner helps him to assist with our everyday problems.

Miss Mary Parziale, a graduate of Boston University, B. S. and Ed. M., is teacher of commercial subjects. She is greatly interested in the success of her students and does much to help them. Tennis is a sport she enjoys.

Mrs. Helen Piggott, head of the French Department, was educated at Mount Holyoke College where she received her B. A. She has done graduate study at Middlebury College and McGill University, and has done resident study in Europe. Besides the useful knowledge of the French language, which we acquired in her classes, we also enjoyed her wit and youthful outlook on life.

Miss Marjorie Rainge received her Bachelor of Science degree from Boston University. One day a week, Miss Rainge teaches Art in the Senior High, the remainder of her time being taken by Junior High art students. Among her hobbies are painting, sewing, cooking, and reading.

Mrs. Ida Rodriguez, who teaches English and Spanish, received her B. S. and A. M. at Boston University, and later studied at the University of Mexico. We shall always remember Mrs. Rodriguez's lively Spanish classes, and her enthusiastic help for our class productions.

Mrs. Angela Romay, teacher of Latin and English, was educated at Jackson and Boston University, earning her B. A. and M. A. Besides having knowledge of Latin and the Romance languages, she is also a capable musician and her spare time hobby is collecting folk songs.

Although Miss Dorothy Sharples, our Art Supervisor, is kept busy teaching her own art classes, she is always willing to lend a hand whenever art work is needed in other fields. Miss Sharples received her Ed. M. from Boston University and her A. M. from Portia Law School.

Mr. Timothy Sheehan, who is head of the manual training department, was educated at Fitchburg State Teachers' College. He is also coach of the golf team. We have greatly appreciated his personal interest and unselfish assistance to us all.

Mrs. Helen Tewksbury, who received her R. N. from Mount Auburn Hospital and has done graduate study at Simmons College and Boston University, is our understanding school nurse and health science teacher. Mrs. Tewksbury serves as advisor to the Sophomore class. She enjoys collecting antique art objects.

Mr. Sydney Williams, teacher of manual training, is a graduate of Boston State Teachers' College, where he is currently working for his master's degree. He divides his teaching time between the Senior and Junior High Schools. Among outside activities are hunting, fishing, football, and hockey.

Our very able English department head, Miss Florence Wilder, received her B. A. from Smith College. Miss Wilder devotes much of her time as advisor to the yearbook. To occupy her leisure, Miss Wilder has taken diverse courses among which are music and art.

Our new bookkeeping and personal typing teacher, Mr. Edward B. Wirt, received his B. B. A. from the University of Massachusetts and his Ed. M. from Boston University. Golf and skiing are among Mr. Wirt's favorite outside interests.

Mr. John Wynn, who is a Senior Class advisor, and the head of the Projection Club, is a popular member of the faculty. A graduate of American International College where he received his B. A. in Biology, Mr. Wynn has also done graduate study at the University of New Hampshire and is currently working at Boston University for his master's degree, which he will receive in June. His various outside interests include golfing, swimming, skiing, and the theater.

Mrs. Alice Gill is the talented piano player for the girls' gym classes. She has given much of her time playing for the Senior plays and school musicals.

The very efficient secretary to the Guidance Director is Mrs. Florence Hannaford. She has a real interest in all of us.

The position of secretary to the Principal is held by Mrs. Agatha Hallas. With her help the administrative work of the school goes along smoothly.

Mr. Charles Doherty and Mr. John Burditt, the efficient custodians of our building, are on duty throughout the year. With the help of temporary assistants, they keep the high school in running order, in spite of hurricanes and other unforeseen occurrences.

Acoustical Technicians

The 1955 Yearbook Staff confidently held its first meeting in the second week of November, little realizing the problems with which it would soon have to cope. Under the able supervision of Miss Wilder and the as-yet untested direction of the following officers: Editor-in-Chief, Simon Sargon; Associate Editors, John Costonis and Sybil Cherwin; and Business Manager, Robert Bangs, we felt ourselves quite equal to the task. Although we anticipated such problems as the lay-out of pictures, write-ups, and a theme, we did not regard these problems too seriously.

By the end of the fourth meeting, however, we realized the complexities of the production of a yearbook. Such problems as the working out of the theme, the originality of the write-ups, the attention that must be paid to the details of picture lay-outs, and the obtaining and setting up of advertisements greatly hastened this realization.

But we diligently applied ourselves to the solutions of these many unforeseen problems with an industriousness and resourcefulness that surprised even ourselves.

It is our earnest desire that the Echo of 1955 will recall the many enjoyable experiences of your school life as you read it now and as you look through it in future years.

Weekly Tape Recorders

The presses rolled; the papers wet with ink were distributed by able workers; and we eagerly read the week's news every Friday in "Little Sir Echo." Headed by editor Michael Fritz, this year's newspaper covered completely the activities of Winthrop High School from gossip to editorials. Mr. Philip Anderson again served as adviser to the newspaper, and his aid was indispensable to the journalistic aspirants. Credit for work well done must also be given to associate editors Lou Bezreh and Nancy Reed.

Besides the weekly edition, there were also two special magazines: one published in January, the other in June. Both contained original student compositions, plus other features of interest.

Particular credit must be given to the typists who worked each week, and to the special editors: Feature editor Pat McAuley, News editor Ina Berman, Sports editor Jim Evans, Art editors Ambia Olsson and Fred Sinatra.

The entire staff worked capably, and the results of their labor were much enjoyed and appreciated by the students of the High School.

Adjustors from Sound to Sight

The Photography Club, under the able leadership of Mr. Edward Herland, completed a successful year with their picnic in June. The aim of the club is to teach each member how to print, develop, and enlarge films, and the materials of the club are available to each member.

The club meets every Tuesday during the second and third lunch periods.

At each meeting two members of the club give a report on some phase of photography and a movie is shown. These weekly meetings proved very instructive to all members. Each month a contest is held, to which every member is expected to contribute a picture.

At the first meeting Ricky Sinatra and Bruce Dana were elected president and recording secretary respectively. In addition to its meetings the club held two successful social events: the Christmas party, and the closing picnic.

Emphasis on Audio and Visual Aid

The Projection Club under the direction of Mr. John Wynn is one of the most useful organizations in the entire high school. This club trains its members to operate all the audio and visual aid equipment that the school owns. Meetings are held every Monday during the second and third lunch periods in room 123.

The members of this club aid the school and the faculty by showing educational and interesting films during classes and assemblies, and by recording class plays and other important events for the future.

History Club Echoes World Affairs

Last November, Miss Viva Blackburn called a meeting to help interested students form a History Club. At this meeting a Permanent Planning Committee, consisting of Sybil Cherwin, Fred Laidlaw, Arnold Rosenblatt, Donald Rubin, and Stephanie Schwartz, was elected.

The committee held many preliminary meetings with Miss Blackburn to establish the club rules and outline the program for the meetings. It was decided that each meeting would be on a country from each part of the world, and that a different committee, guided by a member of the Permanent Planning Committee, would plan each meeting, thus giving more students an opportunity for active participation in the club affairs.

The first meeting was on Germany. There was an exhibit arranged by Donald Rubin, records of German music procured by Stephanie Schwartz, a film obtained by Arnold Rosenblatt, and debates on the topics: "Germany Can Be Democratic," with Louis Bezreh on the affirmative and Arnold Rosenblatt on the negative; and "Germany Should be Rearmed," with the affirmative presented by Frances Bower and the negative presented by Sybil Cherwin.

The programs of the following meetings were on Latin America, the Middle East, and Asia.

Senatus Populusque Romanus

Shades of old Rome at Winthrop High School! The Latin Club, under the able leadership of Mrs. Angela Romy, served to supplement the students' serious study of Latin, with some fun.

This year, there was an innovation in the administration of the club. It was divided into two sections, each having their own officers: the Patricians, or advanced Latin students, and the Plebeians, or second year students. In this way, each group, regardless of size, had equal representation in the General Council.

Meetings were held throughout the year, the first of these an initiation of new members. A "Io Saturnalia" party was held in December. In the spring, plays were presented by the Latin III class.

The officers of the Patricians were: Frances Bower, Consul; Charlotte Baron, Censor; Simon Sargon, Praetor; Marjorie Wechsler, Tribune; Gretchen Dirksmeyer, Quaestor; Ruth Ficksman, Aedile; and Joan DeBonis, Aedile.

The officers of the Plebeians were: Herbert Leventhal, Consul; Elaine Manuel, Censor; Arlene Titchell, Praetor; Marjorie Politt, Tribune; Judie Johnson, Quaestor; and Harold Neiterman, Aedile.

"Good News"

"College life in the old days" set the theme of the Senior musical comedy, "Good News," which was presented on December 10, 11, and 12, 1954, at St. John's Auditorium. The hall was jammed each night to the conflict of Tom Marlowe (Mike Dietz), who, after being failed in Astronomy by Professor the negative; and "Germany Should be Rearmed," Kenyon (Nils Johnson), is tutored by the sweet cousin (Nancy Reed) of his alluring girl friend Patricia Bingham (Rosemary August) so that he will be able to play in the biggest football game of the season. Tom's carefree roommate Bobby Randall (Dave Davis) is bound he'll play in the game, too (even though he doesn't even know how to play!), for the vigorous boy-crazy Babe O'Day (Norma Pelrine) has jilted and upset the strongest player Beef Saunders (Barry Tulin).

Lots of comedy was added by the superstitious trainer "Pooch" Kearney (Fred Laidlaw) and the studious freshman, Sylvester (Charles Sagan). The musical group numbers, solos, and duets contributed humor and vitality to make the production an outstanding success, — not to mention the colorful costumes of the roaring twenties, and the Charleston and the Varsity Drag, which brought back vivid memories to our parents.

Congratulations and appreciation are due Mr. Leibacher for his marvelous direction; Miss Hey and her tireless costume committee; Mr. Wynn and his helpful stage crew; Miss Cady, Mrs. Rodriguez, and Mr. Colby for make-up; the orchestra; and all the students and patrons who made the show as enjoyable as it was.

In the short space of time that he has been a member of our faculty, there have been few people who have endeared themselves to both students and teachers as has Robert Leibacher, our dramatics coach. Mr. Leibacher has contributed his talent and time generously to all his activities, including Mothers' Club, Graduation, Class Day, and the Senior Class Play. His success at Winthrop High cannot be measured in any other way except to say that if The Echo had an Oscar — Mr. Leibacher, we'd give it to you!

New Harmonies Fill The Air

Under the direction of Mr. Harry Harotian, the band has completed one of the most outstanding years in its career.

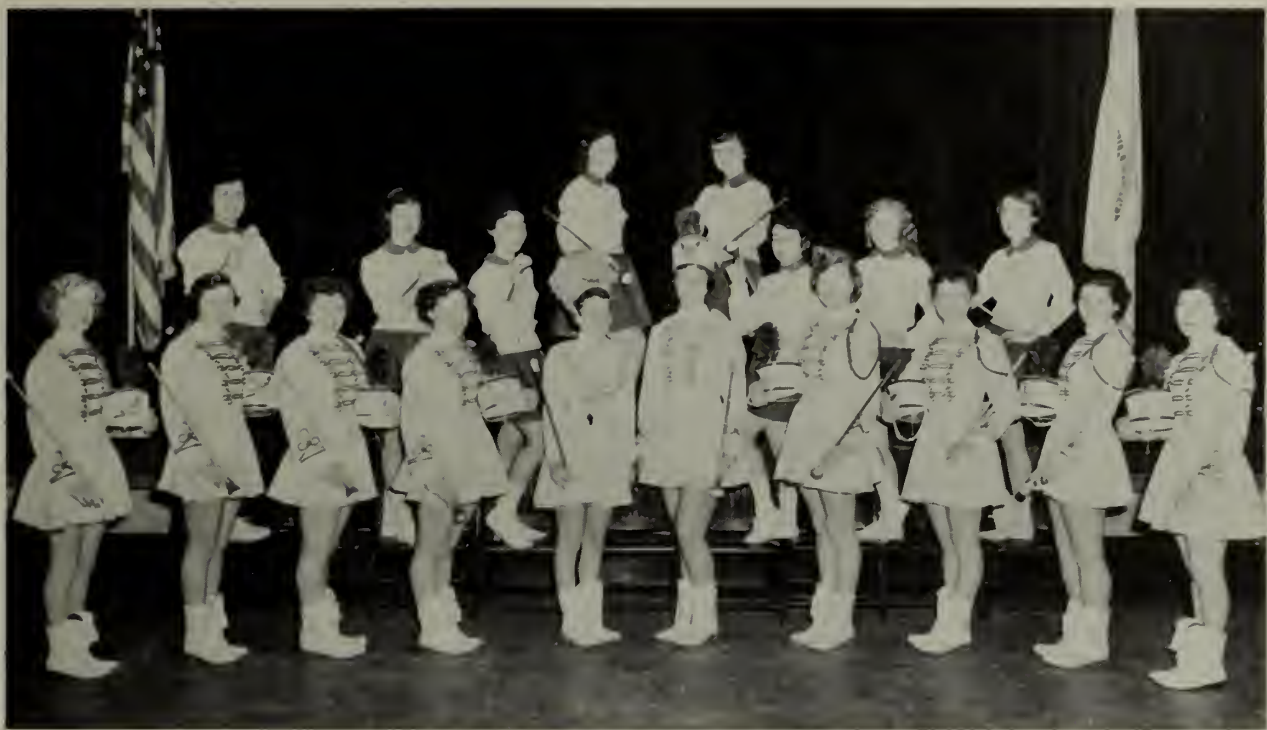

At the beginning of the year the band members chose the following people as officers: Phyllis Wolfson, president; Richard Teeven, vice-president; Mary Perkins, secretary; and Donald Rotfort, treasurer.

During the fall the band played regularly at the football games, and later shared honors with the choir in presenting an entertaining Christmas assembly. Besides participating at all the football games, the band members played at some evening basketball games.

An innovation introduced this year was a special Band Week. Highlights of this event were a parents' night, a parade, and a school assembly program.

Throughout the winter months the band practiced long hours in preparation for the Northeastern Music Festival in Beverly. On the heels of that performance came the annual Spring Concert. Then the band participated in the New England Music Festival, which was staged at the very beautiful University of Rhode Island.

After marching in the Memorial Day Parade and playing at the Graduation exercises, the band closed the season with its annual picnic.

The Majorettes -- The Precision Corps

After three years of hard and careful planning and practicing, the drum majorettes stepped out onto Miller Field to begin their first full season. Dressed in the traditional blue and white of the school, they added a glamorous note to the halftime.

Working behind the scenes was another group of girls — the junior corps. The unceasing interest they displayed in their work won them uniforms, and they were able to march on several occasions.

Even though the squad's main performances are during the football season, they continued to drill with an instructor during the winter and spring months.

Both the junior and senior squads are innovations in school activities, but they have become strong units, bound by friendships and common goals.

"Let Our Voices Loudly Ringing..."

Every Monday and Tuesday lunch periods during the past year one could hear the voices of the Choir echoing through the halls. This year, in addition to the usual school choir, Mr. Harry Harotian, our director, has formed a Special Choir consisting of particularly talented seniors and juniors.

In September this Special Choir entertained the Mothers' Club with a concert.

Then in November the sounds of war echoed through our peaceful school! These strange sounds were explained during the Veteran's Day program, when we witnessed a very moving portrayal of the effects of war. The Choir did an excellent job of supplying background music.

December came and with it the annual Christmas program. Under Mr. Harotian's guidance, Nancy Reed, Carol King, and Sybil Cherwin gave solos respectively in "Ave Maria," "O Holy Night," and "The Lord's Prayer."

In February a full minstrel show was prepared and given by the Sophomore Choir and the Music Appreciation Class I.

The first week in May brought the annual Spring Concert. The Choir, the Band, and the Civic Orchestra joined to give the audience a wonderful experience.

Student Government -- The Activities Committee

The activities committee — student government of the school — held its first meeting in September, and then met regularly throughout the school year. The officers elected at the first meeting were Bill Gillis, president; Jack Permatteo, vice president; and Nancy Reed, secretary.

The activities committee conducted various useful projects during the year, among which were the election of Bob Usseglio as Winthrop's representative in the Jewish War Veterans contest; a clean-up the lunch room campaign; various dances; and the sponsoring of G.E. House of Magic show which displayed latest scientific inventions.

This year, a very worthwhile activity which was continued was correspondence with a polio-stricken German boy.

His letters were of interest to the entire school.

The annual Career Day was held in April. Marjorie Wechsler was in charge of the program, and worked with a steering committee composed of the following members: Gail MacDonald, Noel Parker, Jack Permatteo, Robert Goodfader, Robert McBournie, Nancy Reed, Bob Usseglio, Irene Trainor, Frances Bower, and Donald Rubin. Speakers were invited from many schools, colleges, and places of employment, and they spoke on many vocational fields. The Career Day proved very helpful to all the students, providing them with an opportunity to obtain first-hand information concerning their potential vocations.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner"

"THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER"

The Man Who Came To Dinner, the well-known Broadway success, was presented as the all-school play by W.H.S. at the end of March. The saga of Sheridan Whiteside and his uninhibited friends was given a rousing and enthusiastic production by all participating students.

Donald Addrissi was excellent in the title role. Nancy Reed and Donald Rotfort carried the romantic leads in a professional manner and there were stand-out performances by Carol King, Roger Burke, David Davis, and Joan Lessard.

The entire cast contributed to a spontaneous performance which more than lived up to the high standard of school presentations in recent years.

WELL, WHAT CAN WE SAY?

As coach Ed Macfarland would say, "We had the spirit and we had the guts, but we didn't have the touchdowns."

The football team played nine games, including a twelve minute scrimmage at the Lynn Jamboree which ended in a scoreless tie. Fred Laidlaw and John Walsh were elected co-captains at mid-season.

The season was highlighted, as usual, by the Thanksgiving Day football game at Danvers and the pre-game rally at St. John's Hall, during which Robert S. Remer, president of the Winthrop Rotary Club, presented the Irving P. Alexander Memorial Trophy to co-captain John Walsh.

There were few seniors on the squad this year, so with many experienced sophomores and juniors returning, the coaching staff and captain-elect Jim Soper are looking forward to a better season next year.

Our Team of '55 -- Class B Champs

Although Winthrop took third place in the Northeastern Conference, the season closed happily; for the team won a trophy in the Bay State Tournament. All through the season our captain, Tom Flynn, guided us ably. Coach John Sheehan, in his first year at Winthrop High, proved his ability by bringing us through the season and the tournament successfully.

The regular schedule saw plenty of good ball playing. Charles Rand's rebounding and Bob Usseglio's shooting were highlights of every game. With the help of Seniors McDonald, Evans, Laidlaw, Fritz, Flynn, and Burke, Winthrop was always in fighting. The first Danvers game was the "game" of the season. Bob Usseglio and Tom Flynn were picked to represent Winthrop in the All-Star Team.

In the Tourney, Winthrop defeated Randolph, Hingham, and Lexington to win the Class B title. Charles Rand and Bob Usseglio were chosen for the Tournament All-Star Team.

Girls' Basketball -- It's a Woman's World

Although the Girls' Basketball team did not have a very successful season, its members greeted each game with much vigor and enthusiasm. Theirs was a busy schedule with practice and a game every week from December until March. Guided by the excellent supervision of Miss Ellen Kiernan as their coach, they played four games at home and four games away, their opponents including Malden, Somerville, Woburn, Marblehead, Salem, Revere, and Saugus.

The varsity co-captains were Patricia Bering and Anna Murray, who also were high scorers for the season. The junior varsity team, which shows much promise for next year, was led by high scorers Judy Johnson and Jean De Bonis.

THE CHEERLEADERS

M. De Biasi, N. Cancellieri, H. Cadigan, T. Bloom, N. Reed, C. King, N. Ford, N. Pelrine.

Rah . . . Rah . . . Rah!

Among the many voices echoing throughout Winthrop High School, those of the cheerleaders have been most vibrant.

The girls began to practice vigorously in August, to prepare for the anxiously-awaited football season. Then, from September through November, in rain or shine, they were seen energetically leading the crowds. The season passed quickly; and before the girls knew it, it was time for the annual Thanksgiving Rally. Under the coaching of Mr. Edward Herland, the cheerleaders, dressed in costumes of the past, present, and future, presented a program of comic cheers.

The close of the football season did not end the cheerleaders' work, however. After they had a few weeks' rest, the basketball season began. From the first game to the last, the girls were in there pitching for the home team. How about a "1, 2, 3, 4" for the spirited cheerleaders of Winthrop High!

Under the fine guidance of Mr. Carl Johnson and the leadership of Captain David Varley, the W. H. S. Tumbling Team provided a source of thrill and enjoyment for the students this year. We shall always remember their feats at the football games, the rally, and even in the Senior play.

This year's team is the largest that the school has ever had, numbering about twenty-four boys, fifteen of whom are sophomores or juniors. These underclassmen will constitute the nucleus of next year's team. Because of the large group, the stunts of the team were both new and varied.

The members who will receive sweaters are David Varley, Tom Vickerson, Fred Sinatra, Nils Johnson, Ralph Colby, and Billy Gillis.

it's the "Know How"
